

Al Read

Al Read, a keen mountaineer, joined Ogwen Valley Mountain Rescue Organisation (OVMRO) more 25 years ago and has been a Team Leader for the past 7 years. The 50 strong rescue team is active on 50-60 missions each year.

As the former Training Officer he provided training to team members across a range of disciplines including technical rope rescue, swiftwater rescue and first aid. Al provides search field skills and Management training at a UK National level and has run search Management training for the Police Service of Northern Ireland and the Croatian Mountain Rescue Service. He is a member of the North Wales Search Managers Working Group which provides regional advice on search issues to teams.